WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY / VIGIL MECHANISM

1. BACKGROUND

Sub-section (9) of Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rule No. 7 of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014. formulated under the Act require, inter-alia, that every listed Company to have a formal Vigil Mechanism for Directors and employees of the Company to enable them to report their genuine concerns, if any, as prescribed under the aforesaid rules.

1.2 The audit committee of the Company shall oversee the vigil mechanism through the committee and if any of the members of the committee have a conflict of interest in a given case, he/she shall withdraw himself/ herself from the committee while dealing with the matters relating and arising out of vigil mechanism and the others on the committee would deal with the matter on hand.

1.3. Under these circumstances, The Reliable Ventures India Limited (RVIL) , being a listed Company must establish a Whistle Blower (vigil) mechanism and to formulate a whistle blower policy, voluntarily.

2. POLICY OBJECTIVES.

2.1. A Whistle Blower (Vigil) mechanism provides a channel to the employees to report to the management concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Codes of conduct or policy and provides for adequate safeguards against victimization of employees to avail of the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the Chairman of the Audit Committee in exceptional cases.

2.2. This mechanism neither releases employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work nor can it be used as a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against people in authority and / or colleagues in general.

3. SCOPE OF THE POLICY.

3.1. This Policy covers malpractices and events which may have taken place / suspected to have taken place, misuse or abuse of authority, fraud or suspected fraud, violation of company rules, manipulations, negligence causing potential danger to public health and safety, misappropriation of monies, and other matters or activity on account of which the interest of the Company is affected and formally reported by whistle blowers concerning its employees.

9. PROTECTION.

9.1. No unfair treatment will be meted out to a whistle blower by virtue of his/ her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this policy. The company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination / suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his duties / functions including making further Protected Disclosure. The company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. Thus if the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure etc.

9.2. A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the management.

9.3. The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law. The identity of the complainant will not be revealed unless he himself has made either his details public or disclosed his identity to any other office or authority. In the event of the identity of the complainant being disclosed, the audit committee is authorized to initiate appropriate action as per extant regulations against the person or agency making such disclosure. The identity of the Whistleblower, if known, shall remain confidential to those persons directly involved in applying this policy, unless the issue requires investigation by law enforcement agencies, in which case members of the organization are subject to subpoena.

9.4. Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

9.5. Provided however that the complainant before making a complaint has reasonable belief that an issue exists and he has acted in good faith. Any complaint not made in good faith and assessed as such by the audit committee shall be viewed seriously and the complainant shall be subject to disciplinary action as per the Company HR Rules / certified standing orders of the Company. This policy does not protect an employee from an adverse action taken independent of his disclosure of unethical and improper practice etc. unrelated to a disclosure made pursuant to this policy.

10. ACCESS TO CHAIRMAN OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

10.1. The Whistle Blower / Complainant shall have right to liberal and direct access to the Chairman of the Audit Committee in exceptional cases and the Chairman of the Audit Committee is authorized to formulate and prescribe suitable directions and or process in this regard.
